

360° Financial Advisory Expertise
for your illiquid and liquid assets, since 1947.

 remaco

Research & Management Company, since 1947.

For your illiquid and liquid assets, since 1947.

As a partner-managed multi-family office for entrepreneurs, high-net-worth-individuals (HNWI) and family offices as well as small and medium-sized institutions (such as foundations, pension funds), we provide a completely independent single source service – personal, discreet and with a long-term vision.

Remaco actively represents your interests, creates security for you and your descendants and ensures transparency and cost efficiency in the management of your assets.

360° Financial Advisory

Evidence-based portfolio management

Asset Management

We implement our evidence-based asset management for you. This is based on the independent analysis and preparation of global capital market expectations, as well as the implementation of these expectations in efficient, passive and always diversified portfolios. Our approach is characterized by the rule-based, always comprehensible and transparent allocation of capital to asset classes. Thanks to our evidence-based asset management, our clients receive a cost-efficient and high-performance global market portfolio. In addition, thanks to our special expertise in private markets, you benefit from the opportunity to make attractive investments in liquid and non-liquid private credit assets.

M&A, private market financing, investments and divestments

Corporate Finance, Mergers & Acquisitions

Corporate financing and mergers & acquisitions transactions provide key challenges to our clients. Thanks to the growth of private markets, new horizons are opening up in terms of bank-independent corporate financing and the structuring of M&A transactions. We support you actively and free of any conflicts of interest, from valuation and transaction strategy to the successful implementation of transactions. We also provide expert opinions, for which we use our excellent national and international network of leading professors and universities as well as our Nexia International membership. Together with our experts, we offer you 360° financial advisory expertise from a single source.
